

The Prison Wardenship changed hands yesterday. Frank McCullough, the new Warden, took charge, and Frank Bell retired. It is to be regretted that this change should be associated with some political events that are not at all savory; as Frank McCullough is a very popular man.—Carson Union.

The Virginia Report rebukes the slur as follows:

It is difficult for us to conceive of anything smaller or more contemptible than the above extract. We have not the least idea in the world of what the editor refers to, and none reading it can guess. If there are truthful grounds for the vile slur, of course, it is not libelous. But what makes it so low and mean is, that if there is no ground whatever, vile as it is, still it is not libelous, because no fact is stated.

The Virginia Chronicle and Carson Union have been gum-sucking each other, and spitting out at all public officials—good, bad and indifferent on general principles—in the above style for two months past. They seem to have studied only one thing with care, and that is to not tread on the toes of the law of libel. So exquisitely cautious are they in this State they never venture beyond slurs, hints and innuendoes.

But they can be reached, and they should be reached and taught a lesson in decency. The public in general are interested for the good of public morals in sitting down on this kind of work.

With reference to the article above quoted it is implied that Frank McCullough has attained to high office through foul work. Until the editor brings forth his proofs to justify himself he should not be patronized. How do you know, you who patronize him, but that you will be the next to be attacked, and where will be your protection? What claim to protection will you have if you look not to the protection of others?

The boodle element has received but indifferent dole this year, but the spirit is still writhing, and it is time to knock it to an eternal rest.

AN IMMIGRATION BUREAU.

Maute's bill establishing an Immigration Bureau for Nevada, passed the Senate yesterday by a unanimous vote. The Senator does not often talk, and when he explained his bill there was no dissenting vote. The bill fills a want recognized for some time in this State. Maute has introduced and passed several excellent bills, but none better than this.

The State Prison Removal.

ED. APPEAL:—In your issue of yesterday I notice an article charging that the Democrats and Mugwumps were trying to move the State Prison to Reno. The Mugs may be attempting some such racket, but I can assure you that the Democrats are opposed to it to a man. The Democrats of Nevada were never found in alliance with the Mugwumps, and never will be. Senators Briggs, Harris, Westerfield and Pierce are opposed to any removal, and the most outspoken against it. When the Democratic party talks of economy and reform it means it, and it does not propose to saddle any such expense on the State of Nevada. Yours,
A DEMOCRAT.

Card of Thanks.

To my little friends who so kindly volunteered, and the parents of the same, for their aid in ways that are only known to those thoughtful guardians; to Governor Laughton, the prince of presiding geniuses; to the young ladies who so kindly assisted in many ways, and to the generous people, for their liberal patronage and kind indulgence in overlooking errors, I take this means of expressing my thanks. And to the press, the friend of struggling genius, I desire to give my sincere gratitude, on behalf of the G. A. R. and myself.
Respectfully,
EMMA A. FRIEND.
